

MEETING DATE:

February 6, 2013, 3:00 p.m.

AGENDA ITEM:

C.1. Director's Report

SUBJECT: A regular report of the director of the Office of College, Career & Technical Education from the period of December 2012 through January 2013 to the Career Technical Education Advisory Committee.

ITEMS: School site visits

- Second semester instructional rounds have begun—all certificated members out for site visits.
- Directors site visits during this period included: Lincoln, Henry, Mission Bay High School, SciTech, School of International Business, School of Business, MVPA/LEADS, Madison, Point Loma, Crawford, Hoover, Morse, Scripps Ranch, Construction Tech, School of Science Connections and Technology, Claremont, Downtown Charter, Henry, Serra, Lincoln, Marston, Scripps Ranch, Mira Mesa.
- Visit from the Assistant Secretary of Education of the United States to Hoover AOIT.
- Morse education facility open and operations. Dedication ceremony on February 28, 2013
- Point Loma facility open and operational, final commissioning and dedication ceremony to be determined.
- Mira Mesa High School graphic arts, broadcast, and theater facilities renovation nearly complete

ITEMS: Programmatic

- CCTE Teacher of the year named, our congratulation to Candace Pauchnick
- Four additional CCTE teachers across the district named site teachers of the year
- CCTE Teacher Tim Bingham named Project Lead the Way state teacher of the year
- Fiscal planning for 2013-2015 underway with prediction of a small attrition in budget
- Visit from state Superintendent with positive comments and feedback.
- Annual CCTE Showcase. Thursday, 9 May 2013. Market Creek Events Center. 4P – 6P.
- San Diego State University Linked Learning Teacher Education Program. Student teachers currently placed in core academic classes at San Diego Complex, Kearny Complex, Madison, and University City will be in CTE classrooms for part of their spring teaching assignment.
- After Action Reviews for Prop 1d funded facilities were conducted at Madison, Claremont and Morse HS.
- Leadership development professional development continues with three of four cohorts complete
- The Curriculum and Program Development team continues to populate the department's new on-line professional development system for teachers, titled "CCTE University"
- New course development and review continues: to serve as an alternative course that is UC "c" approved in the area of Algebra 2; middle school course development to better support the pathways at feeder high schools; newly acquired information technology and technical theater courses