

MEETING DATE:

April 10, 2013, 3:00 p.m.

AGENDA ITEM:

C.1. Director's Report

SUBJECT: A regular report of the director of the Office of College, Career & Technical Education from the period of February 2013 through March 2013 to the Career Technical Education Advisory Committee.

ITEMS: School site visits

- Spring break marks the entry into the fourth quarter of the year.
- Second semester instructional rounds are complete—all certificated members out for site visits.
- Directors site visits during this period included: Lincoln, Morse, Point Loma, Henry, Mission Bay High School, SciTech, School of International Business, School of Business, MVPA, LEADS, Madison, Crawford, Hoover, Construction Tech, School of Science Connections and Technology, Claremont, High Tech High, Henry, Serra, and Mira Mesa.
- PLHS facility dedication tomorrow.
- Morse education dedication ceremony on February 28, 2013
- San Diego High culinary arts came in second at ProStart.

ITEMS: Programmatic

- Small Learning Communities teachers and coodonators were in Sacramento for the annual Educating for Careers conference. Several groups presented.
- Fiscal planning for 2013-2015 underway with prediction of a small attrition in budget
- Annual CCTE Showcase. Thursday, 9 May 2013. Market Creek Events Center. 4P – 6P.
- San Diego State University Linked Learning Teacher Education Program. Student teachers currently placed in core academic classes at San Diego Complex, Kearny Complex, Madison, and University City will be in CTE classrooms for part of their spring teaching assignment.
- After Action Reviews for Prop 1d projects nearly complete. Many lessons learned and an outstanding growth opportunity.
- Teen Iron was well received by the community
- Continuing to explore addition platforms for online learning
- Cover story of the San Diego Reader was from CCTE "The days of standing in front of a class to teacher are over."
- Performance enhancing metrics are being to be published and posted.