PUBLIC INPUT: Request to Address Committee

The CAC invites all interested individuals to present information during the "Open Forum" portion of our public meetings.

In order to assist with organization of your presentation and accurately document your comments, the CAC requests utilization of this form. Each presenter will be given two minutes to speak unless the presiding Chairperson permits an extension.

Please raise your hand if you would like assistance with completing this form or presenting your information verbally to the committee. The Chairperson can also present your information if you wish to remain anonymous.

Please state your name prior to addressing the Committee. Information about students is confidential and need not be disclosed during your statement. We ask for this information to expedite follow-up.

We are interested in hearing from you and appreciate your input.
