On this form we ask you for some information about the number of people living in your home and your income. Your child's school needs this information to help ensure it receives all the state funding it is entitled to. This information is private. It will not be used for any other purpose. It will not affect your child receiving free meals at this critical.

Who should I include in "Number of People Living in Home"?

To determine the number of people living in your home, count yourself and all the people who live with you and share expenses, whether they are related to you or not. Include children and adults. Do not include people who live with you but are financially independent, such as a boarder who pays rent.

What is included in "Total Monthly Income"? Total Monthly Income includes the following:

- Gross earnings from work: Use the gross income, not the take-home pay, for everyone living in your home. Gross income is the amount of money each person earns BEFORE taxes and any other deductions. This amount may be found on the paystub or requested from the employer. Net income should only be reported for self-owned business, farm, or rental income.
- Welfare, Child Support, Alimony: Include the amount each person living in your home receives from these sources, including any amount received from CalWORKs.
- Pensions, Retirement, Social Security, Supplemental Security Income (SSI), Veteran's benefits (VA benefits), and disability benefits: Include the amount each person living in your home receives from these sources.
- All Other Income: Include worker's compensation, unemployment or strike benefits, regular contributions from people who do not live in your home and any other income received. Do not include income from CalFresh, WIC, federal education benefits and foster payments received by people living in your home.
- Military Housing Allowances and Combat Pay: Include off-base housing allowances. Do not include Military Privatized Housing Initiative or combat pay.
- · Overtime Pay: Include overtime pay ONLY if you receive it on a regular basis.

If the number of people living in your home is more than 9, write the number of people living in your home and total monthly income in the space provided.

If your income varies, include the wages/salary that you regularly receive. For example, if you normally make $1,000 each month, but you missed some work last month and made $900, put down that you made $1,000 per month. Only include overtime pay if you receive it on a regular basis. If you have lost your job or had your hours or wages reduced, enter zero or your current reduced income.

For additional information on Number of People Living in Home and Total Monthly Income, please see the Eligibility Manual for School Meals on the U.S. Department of Agriculture Guidance and Resource Web page at http://www.fps.usda.gov/cgn/dguidance/dsfault.html

En esta forma le pedimos información sobre el número de personas que viven en su hogar y sobre sus ingresos. La escuela de su hijo/a necesita esta información para ayudar a asegurar que reciba todos los fondos estatales a los que liene derecho. Esta información es privada. No se utilizará para ningún otro propósito. Esto no afectará la elegibilidad de su hijo/a para recibir alimentos cratuitos en la escuela.

¿A quién debo incluir en el "número de personas en el hogar"?

Para determinar el número personas que viven en su hogar, cuéntese usted mismo/a y todas las personas que viven con usted y comparten los gastos, ya sea que estén relacionados con usted o no. Incluya niños y adultos. No incluya gente que vive con usted pero que es financieramente independiente, como un huésped que paga renta.

¿Qué está incluido en los "ingresos mensuales totales"? Los ingresos mensuales totales incluyen lo siguiente:

- Ingresos brutos del empleo: Use el ingreso bruto, no el salario neto, de todos los que viven en su hogar. El ingreso bruto es la cantidad de dinero que cada persona gana ANTES de que se descuenten los impuestos y otras deducciones. Esta cantidad se puede encontrar en el talón de pagos o se puede solicitar al empleador. El ingreso neto sólo se debe reportar para negocios propios, granias o ingresos por rentas.
- Asistencia social, pensión para menores, pensión alimenticia: Incluya la cantidad que cada persona que vive en su hogar recibe de estas fuentes, incluyendo cualquier cantidad que reciba de CalWORKs.
- Pensiones, jubilación, seguro social, ingreso suplementario de seguridad (SSI), prestaciones para veteranos (VA) y beneficios por discapacidad: incluya la cantidad que cada persona que vive en su hogar recibe de estas fuentes.
- Todos los demás ingresos: Incluya la compensación por accidentes laborales, beneficios por desempleo o huelga, las contribuciones regulares de personas que no vivan en su hogar y cualquier otro ingreso que reciba. No incluya los ingresos de CalFresh, WIC, beneficios educativos federales o pagos por el cuidado adoptivo temporal (conocido en inglés como foster care) que reciben las personas de su hogar.
- Subsidios de vivienda para militares y paga por combate: Incluya los subsidios de vivienda fuera de la base. No incluya el pago por la Iniciativa de Vivienda Militar Privatizada o el pago por combate.
- Pago de horas extras: Incluya el pago de horas extras SÓLO si lo recibe regularmente.
- Si el número de personas que viven es más que 9, escribe el número de personas que viven en su hogar y el total de ingresos mensuales de su hogar en el espacio provisto.
- Si sus ingresos varian, incluya el salario que recibe regularmente. Por ejemplo, si normalmente recibe $1,000 al mes, pero faltó al trabajo el mes pasado y recibió $900, anote que recibe $1,000 al mes. Sólo incluya el pago de horas extras si lo recibe regularmente. Si perdió su empleo o le redujeron la cantidad de horas o el sueldo, anote cero o el ingreso reducido actual.
- Para obtener más información sobre el número de personas que viven en el hogar y el ingreso mensual total, consulte el Manual de Elegibilidad para recibir Comidas Escolares (Eligibility Manual for School Meals) en la página web de orientación y recursos del Departamento de Agricultura de Estados Unidos en
