1. Students will demonstrate significant annual growth in literacy and in academic content knowledge.

2. Students will engage in setting college and/or career goals.

3. Students will demonstrate effective oral and written communication skills appropriate for their audience.

4. Students will be responsible citizens who demonstrate “Cardinal PRIDE” and make positive contributions to their community.

5. Students will be critical thinkers who analyze and solve real world problems.