MORSE HIGH SCHOOL
OCTOBER 2018

WELCOME BACK, TIGERS!

Welcome back to the 2018-2019 school year! We, here at your IMIN afterschool program, are very excited to see what this new school year will bring and all the opportunities we will have together! We are located in the same classroom, Room 505 and we are open to ALL students in the morning from 6:00am to 7:20am and afterschool from 2:18pm to 4:30pm. Come join us!

What is IMIN?

IMIN is SDUSD's premier after school program for students at 14 high schools. The name "IMIN," pronounced "I'm in," is designed to align with the way that students talk about their favorite after school activities. The program was developed after soliciting feedback directly from high school students, and includes a suite of branded apparel, posters, flyers and promotional items. The goal of IMIN is to help San Diego high school students pursue their passions through a variety of after school opportunities.

Dance, leadership, sports, cooking, theater and robotics are just a few examples of IMIN activities that are enjoyed at campuses across the District. At most school sites, IMIN activities happen before school, after school and on the weekends. IMIN activities are open to everyone, and they are always free! IMIN participants also get the inside scoop on college visits, field trips, and adventure challenges. At the end of each school year, IMIN hosts a free talent showcase called "IMIN Showdown" where hundreds of teens compete to be crowned the Best of the Best!

IMIN LEADERSHIP COUNCIL

Our IMIN Leadership Council is open to all students who are interested in making a change in their school and community. The Leadership Council is involved in planning of all Morse IMIN events. They are also given the opportunity to participate in community events. Council members also have the chance to attend a city-wide SDLEADS Conference. These conferences are hosted at many college campuses around San Diego. Members of the Leadership Council are able to interact with other high school leaders and participate in workshops tailored for upcoming leaders! Stop by room 505 for more information!
