

Children & Youth in Transition

FACT SHEET 2016-17

Mission: The mission of our office is to promote equitable access for all students in transition by providing academic and social emotional supports that build resiliency and further their opportunities to succeed.

Web www.sandiegounified.org/cyt	 Phone 619-725-7326	Email cyt@sandi.net
--	---	--

Services and Supports: Our office provides support with student enrollment, obtaining educational records, linkages to district and community resources, collaboration with educational agencies, and referrals for food, clothing, school supplies, and mental health services. Transportation to and from school of origin if students meet the requirements.

Foster Children & Youth www.sandiegounified.org/foster-youth Children placed away from their parents or guardians for whom the child welfare agency has placement and care responsibility including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • foster family homes • relative foster homes • group homes • residential facilities San Diego Unified School District Administrative Procedure 6131	Homeless Children & Youth, including Unaccompanied Youth www.sandiegounified.org/education-homeless-children-youth A child lacking a fixed, regular and adequate nighttime residence, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • those who live with a friend, relative, or other person due to loss of housing or economic hardship • those who live in a motel, hotel, trailer park, or camping ground due to lack of alternative adequate accommodations • those who live in a car, abandoned building, park or other space <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • those who live in substandard housing • those who live in an emergency shelter, transitional shelter, or domestic violence shelter Youth who are homeless and living without a parent or legal guardian are considered “unaccompanied youth” and include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • young people who have run away; • or have been forced out of their home; • or have been abandoned by their parent or guardian. San Diego Unified School District Administrative Procedure 6129.
Military-dependent Children & Youth www.sandiegounified.org/military-resources Children and youth in grades K-12 in the household of an active uniformed service member of the U.S., including any member of the National Guard or Reserve on active duty. San Diego Unified School District Administrative Procedure 6050	Refugee Children & Youth www.sandiegounified.org/refugee-children-youth Refugees come to the U.S. due to a well-founded fear of being persecuted for reasons of race, religion, nationality, membership of a particular social group, or political opinion.

Children and Youth in Transition
4100 Normal St., Annex 13
San Diego CA 92103

Children & Youth in Transition

FACT SHEET 2016-17
