

SAN DIEGO SYMPHONY

PRESENTS

A Sensory Friendly Kinder Konzert especially designed for children on the autism spectrum.

Saturday, February 18, 2017

10:00 and 11:30 a.m.

Ballard Parent Center (Old Town)

2375 Congress St., San Diego, 92110

Join conductor Sameer Patel, members of the San Diego Symphony and Julie Guy, board certified Music Therapist, as we explore music of the string family in a comfortable and friendly environment.

Featuring music of Mozart, Holst, Elgar, Grieg and more!

- This 40-minute concert is FREE of charge and available to children with autism spectrum disorders and their families.
- It is most appropriate for children in pre-school through 2nd grade.
- RSVPs are required and seating will be limited to 50 people per concert. To reserve your seats, please email Adrienne Valencia, Director of Youth Education, at avalencia@sandiegosymphony.org.

No tickets will be issued. Complimentary parking is available on the street or in the adjacent lot.

Kinder Konzerts are generously sponsored by Linda and Shearn Platt.

This concert was developed in collaboration with
